

Status Update

Legislative Threat to Education for All

HB793/SB836 | Rep. Lamberth/Sen. Watson

Last Updated: March 11, 2026

Introduced in 2025, this bill was openly discussed by both sponsors as a vehicle to overturn the Plyler v. Doe precedent, which guarantees all children living in the United States access to free public education regardless of immigration status. Advocacy by thousands of Tennesseans halted the bill's progress in 2025, but sponsors are bringing it back in 2026.

The version passed by the Senate and the version debated in the House differ from one another in significant ways, and the two chambers will have to agree on one version of the bill for it to pass. The bill must also be signed into law by Governor Lee.

Key Provisions	House Version		Senate Version
	Current Version Amendment 1	Proposed Amendment 013823
Public schools collect information on student immigration status as part of school enrollment.	Schools choose if they want to collect documentation. Requires schools to report the number of students who enroll without supplying a birth certificate.	Requires schools to collect information to show students' citizenship, liminal status, or lawful presence. Schools must report aggregated data to the TN Dept. of Education (TDOE), including types of documentation provided, student counts, and the reason given for those who do not produce documentation. TDOE must report annually to immigration authorities and various state agencies on student counts and documentation.	Requires schools to collect information.
Public schools charge tuition to students who cannot prove lawful presence.	Schools choose if they will deny enrollment outright or after attempting to charge tuition.	Tuition not mentioned.	Schools choose if they want to charge tuition.
Public schools deny enrollment to students who cannot prove lawful presence.	Schools choose if they will deny enrollment outright or after attempting to charge tuition.	This is not mentioned specifically but the documentation provision implies undocumented students cannot enroll.	Schools can choose to deny enrollment only if the student is unable to pay tuition.
